

Run from school yard to ship yard!

Sunday, May 2, 2010

8:30 AM

Run the length of Philadelphia on the city's longest street — 10 miles from Central High School Athletic Field up north into the Navy Yard down south, with only one little turn along the way!

- Largest 10-miler in the country
- $20,000 in prize money
- 150 age-group awards
- 10 American Prize awards
- Team competition
- Free commemorative T-shirt
- Chronotrack® disposable timing chips for all runners
- Race activities for the whole family
- Music and entertainment on the course

NOT FOR RUNNERS ONLY HEALTH AND FITNESS EXPO

Open to the public Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1 at Lincoln
Financial Field with over 50 booths

Registration for the Blue Cross Broad Street Run will be capped at 30,000 runners.

To register online or to print
an application:

www.broadstreetrun.com

For additional information,
call: 215-683-3594

Independence
Blue Cross

Independence Blue Cross is an independent licensee of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association.